§ BEARING

Senior Product Manager with ten years of experience across B2B SaaS, IoT-adjacent platforms, regulated environments, and AI data systems. Background combines rigorous requirements engineering, delivery ownership in cross-functional teams, and hands-on technical fluency across modern software stacks. Comfortable operating in ambiguity – where requirements are incomplete, priorities shift fast, and teams need a PM who can restore clarity and keep shipping. AI-native in practice: LLM-assisted discovery, rapid prototyping, and agentic workflow design are embedded in daily work, not reserved for side projects.

§ CORE STRENGTHS

- B2B SaaS roadmap ownership with direct stakeholder accountability
- Agile team restructuring and sprint discipline recovery
- End-to-end delivery: user story through GitOps rollout
- Data-driven backlog prioritisation and ROI framing
- IoT and hardware-adjacent platform product fluency
- Cross-functional alignment across engineering, QA, data science, and compliance
- AI-native prototyping and LLM-assisted requirements engineering
- User experience advocacy in consumer-facing mobile contexts
- Founder-level pragmatism: high agency, low ego
